

NRDCA Annual Meeting
March 29-31, 2023
Loews Coronado Bay Resort
Coronado, CA

You are cordially invited to attend the NRDCA Annual Meeting and Educational Conference to be held at the Loews Coronado Bay Resort in Coronado, California March-29-31.

A Secluded Waterfront Oasis with Genuine Southern California Style perched on a 15-acre peninsula, there's simply nothing like this destination, surrounded by shimmering bay waters and the San Diego skyline. A private oasis home to endless activities - from sailboat excursions and watersports to beaches and pool cabanas - the resort is quintessentially Southern California.

Golfers will arrive on Tuesday March 28 for a March 29th golf outing. The welcome reception will take place Wednesday evening March 29. The Educational Conference will begin in the morning of Thursday March 30th with a dinner reception in the evening. The afternoon will be at one's leisure. The meeting will resume on Friday March 31st concluding with the Business meeting before noon, then adjournment.

Registration includes Meals from Wednesday evening through lunch on Friday for meeting attendees. Breakfast is on your own for those not attending the actual meetings. Guest Rooms are available for $239.00 per night plus taxes. Attendees and guests are responsible for room expense and all incidentals. The reservation line number is: 619-424-4000. Tell reservations that you are booking for NRDCA conference. The cut-off date is March 8, 2023.

The resort is closest to San Diego International Airport (SAN) and is served by most major airlines. The resort is approximately a 25-minute drive from the airport.

The weather in the greater San Diego area during our stay averages daytime highs in the low 70's with nighttime lows in the upper 50's.

Please fill out the accompanying registration form per instructions and return it with your check to David Miorelli c/o Joseph Miorelli & Co., Inc., 319 Carleton Avenue, Hazleton, PA 18201. Make your check payable to the NRDCA.

We hope you will join us in Southern California in March for a good meeting and a great time with old friends and new!
